

C. H. Allison visited the lower part of the district with Judge E. D. Woodburn of Prince George, who is holding regular county court sittings.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stevenson of Wells passed through town en route south to Lulu Island and Vancouver Island. They expect to buy a home on Vancouver Island.

Rumors are current here that Rex Theatre, operated for the past 27 years by A. J. Elliott, has changed hands.

Personal Items

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Thompson, of Eugene, Ore., have arrived in Quesnel. Last year they purchased the property next to the John A. Fraser residence, and hope to establish a business on the location.

Mrs. W. Mosson, former Quesnel resident who has been seriously ill at Prince George, is reported to be making good progress toward recovery.

Louis LeBourdais made a quick trip to Babine Lake to visit his sons, Jim and Jerry. He was accompanied by Conrad Tall, who will spend the summer there.

Harry Bowman of Prince George, colonization agent for the Canadian National Railways, was a business visitor in town during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Forsyth, of Vancouver, former Quesnel residents, are on a visit to the Kersley district, and have renewed old acquaintanceships in Quesnel as well.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Cook, who have been at the Coast for the past month, have returned to town. Mr. Cook has re-opened his jewelry and watch repair business on Carson Avenue.
